On or about September 26, 2016 the Mayor's Office of Housing and Community Development of the City and County of San Francisco (MOHCD) will submit a request to the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Office of Community Planning and Development for the release of an estimated $1,000,000 in Home Investment Partnership Program (HOME) grants under Title II of the Cranston-Gonzales National Affordable Housing Act of 1990, as amended and an estimated $1,000,00 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, to undertake a project known as the Casa-de-la-Misión Housing Development.

The proposed project, Casa de la Misión, is the mixed-use development of 50 units of low-income housing for seniors and 1,900-2,500 square feet of commercial space. Development of the housing will include site acquisition, demolition of two existing structures and the construction of a six story structure. The 6,000 square foot ground floor will include a lobby, housing management office and nonprofit or retail space. The second through sixth floors will house 50 studio apartments including a staff unit. The site is located at 3001-3013 24th Street in San Francisco's Mission District. The total cost of the project is estimated to be $50,000,000.

FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT

The Mayor's Office of Housing and Community Development has determined that the project will have no significant impact on the human environment. Therefore, an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) is not required.
