INCOME FROM LIQUID ASSETS

Important: You must list every cash account that shows the household member as an account holder. Liquid asset accounts can include, but are not limited to, checking accounts, savings accounts, Certificates of Deposit, Mutual Funds, stocks, bonds, trust funds, limited liability investments, gifts for down payment or other costs, retirement accounts, monthly income from retirement and any other account in which money is saved. If money is not saved in an institution (e.g. it is saved at home), applicants must list this amount, as well. Do not include material assets such as cars, boats, etc. -- only cash assets.

You must also list all joint accounts, custodial accounts for minors, and other accounts on which the household member's name appears. Failure to list all accounts will disqualify your household from applying for the BMR unit. All money used toward down payment and closing costs is counted as an asset and should be included. Retirement money will not be counted toward the asset test and should not be listed below. However, applicant must include at least the most recent statement from each retirement account as an attachment in your application for verification. Attach additional sheets if necessary.

HOUSEHOLD CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURES

All statements made in this application are true and made for the purpose of applying for an Affordable Housing Program Below Market Rate unit, through the City and County of San Francisco ("City"). Verification may be obtained from any source named in this application. I/we fully understand the City may terminate my/our participation in the Program at any time if it finds that I/we have knowingly provided false, misleading or inaccurate information or withheld information. In such case, I/we understand that I/we may be prohibited from participating in the Program for a minimum of one (1) year, or a longer period of time in the City's sole discretion. For purposes of this Certification, "knowingly" means that an applicant, with respect to any information provided to MOHCD, does any of the following: (1) Has actual knowledge of the information; (2) Acts in deliberate ignorance of the truth or falsity of the information; (3) Acts in reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the information. Proof of specific intent is not required and reliance on my/our information by MOHCD is also not required. If the City cannot verify a housing lottery preference that you have claimed, you will not receive the preference but will not be otherwise penalized.

The information on this form will be used to determine income eligibility. I/we have listed all persons in my/our household. I/we have provided each household member's acceptable verification of current annual income. I/we have also disclosed ALL assets held by each person listed on the application, and have provided documentation thereof. Under penalties of perjury, I/we certify that the information presented in this Certification is true and accurate to the best of my/our knowledge and belief. The undersigned further understands that providing false representations herein constitutes an act of fraud.

Public Records Act: The City and County of San Francisco is subject to the requirements of the California Public Records Act, Government Code Section 6250, et seq. The Public Records Act provides that virtually all documents held or used by the City in the course of conducting the public's business are public records which the City, subject to certain limited exemptions, must make available for inspection and copying by the public. Applications for loans or grants from the City are public records as are the completed loan and grant documents. Under Section 67.24(e) of San Francisco Administrative Code, applications for financing and all other records of communication between the City and the Borrower must be open to public inspection immediately after a contract has been awarded. All information provided by the Borrower which is covered by that ordinance (as it may be amended) will be made available to the public upon appropriate request. MOHCD will not disclose personal sensitive information including dates of birth, social security numbers and bank account numbers.

Must be signed by all applicants 18 years or older.
